STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE

I, the undersigned, on behalf of the above listed organization, have read, fully understand and agree with the following requirements as set forth in the DIFI Constitution and Bylaws. Specific notes include:

1. The booth, nor any space, may be neither sub-leased nor sub-rented to any person or entity.
2. A reminder that all monies that flow through your booth must also flow through your organization's treasury.
3. Items sold in your booth must be a representative of your culture, regardless of where they are obtained.
4. You are responsible for managing all aspects of your booth including workers, suppliers and vendors.
5. If found in violation of any above listed requirements, the organization will be subject to a three-year expulsion from A World A'Fair, and reinstatement will be subject to availability of space.

The signer of this form is currently a delegate in good standing with the Dayton International Festival, Inc. and understands that the above information is officially entered into the records of DIFI. Any changes will be accepted by the secretary only when such information is submitted in writing or via email.
